Professional Development for Schools Request Form

1. The Refugee experience and Recovery Goals

This workshop focuses on understanding the refugee experience, including asylum seekers, prior to arrival in Australia and during resettlement and its impact on students and their families. As this understanding underpins responsive and effective classroom strategies, this workshop is a prerequisite for 'Understanding the Whole of School Approach' workshop. 2 hours.

2. Understanding the Whole of School Approach

This workshop explores the whole of school approach including school policies and procedures, curriculum and programs, ethos and environment, classroom strategies, using interpreters and partnerships with parents and agencies. 2 hours

3. Schools and Families working together

This workshop provides information and strategies to engage families of refugee backgrounds in schools. 1.5 hours
